

GROUP 1 : Multiple Choice Questions

1. According to the text, what is a column in a newspaper?
 - A) A column is a type of publication that has stories about what is happening now.
 - B) A column is a section in a newspaper where journalists write about the same thing every day or week.
 - C) A column is a type of newspaper that is read by people all over the country.
 - D) A column is a type of newspaper that is only for one city or area.
2. What are the two formats of newspapers mentioned in the text?
 - A) Broadsheet and tabloid
 - B) National and local
 - C) Daily or weekend editions
 - D) Morning or evening editions
3. What sections can be found in newspapers according to the text?
 - A) Stories about famous people and exciting things
 - B) News about different things such as politics, business, entertainment, and sports
 - C) The weather forecast and horoscope
 - D) Fun games and comics

GROUP 2 : Define Key Vocabulary Words

journalist (noun)

Definition :

editor (noun)

Definition :

column (noun)

Definition :

GROUP 3 : Short answer questions.

1. What is a column in a newspaper?
2. What are the two main types of newspapers and how are they different (format/ content)?
3. What are the different sections that newspapers have?

GROUP 4 : Summarise the main information from the passage.

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____